DECEMBER 1

Moving Day!

It's December 1st.
The Christmas elf is here!

He quietly opens the door and looks around. This is where he'll live for the next few weeks.

He quickly puts down his suitcase and starts unpacking. Inside are lots of wonderful things: a little lantern, his blanket, a few books, and a teddy bear.

Then he spots something very special: a tiny elf door on the wall! But the key he has doesn't fit. Oh no! It's the key to the front door!

The elf smiles. "No problem! I'll look for the right key tomorrow. That's the first thing on my list!"
